

Terms and Conditions:

1-Media accreditation is strictly reserved for genuine members of the sports press and USPA Members who represent a bona fide media organization.

2-Accreditation cards/tags will be given to those who fill the forms and meet the requirements.

3-Filling the form doesn't automatically guarantee you the accreditation card/tag.

4-Deliver your form after filling it at the front desk, FUFA House or via email accreditation@fufa.co.ug once signed and scanned (PDF format).

5-Accreditation cards/tags will be given to those who fill the forms and meet the requirements.

6-No accreditation card/tag shall be produced after the deadline for application.

7-Double accreditation is not permitted but application will be required on selected FUFA events.

8-The Accreditation card/tag issued is specifically for one event and can't be used for another.

9-Information provided to FUFA will be used solely for accreditation and statistical purposes and will not be published to the general public.

10-Accreditation cards/tags are non-transferable and must be worn correctly at all times.

11-A Media accreditation card/tag is granted subject to the applicant's acceptance of any terms and conditions relating to the event in question.

12-FUFA reserves the right of approval, issuance and withdrawal of the Accreditation card/tag.

13-As ever we look forward to welcoming the sports media to FUFA organised events.
